DLS Law Offices headed by Dipti Lavya Swain merges its practice with HSA Advocates in New Delhi, Mumbai and Bhubaneswar

We are pleased to announce that Dipti Lavya Swain, Founder & Managing Partner of DLS Law Offices is merging his firm with HSA Advocates. DLS Law currently operates from New Delhi and also has a presence in Mumbai and Bhubaneswar.

With over 13 years of work experience, including in top tier firms as a partner, Dipti is a specialist in Private Equity, M&A, Securities Law, Insolvency Laws and Corporate Law. He has significant experience in a highly competitive Indian corporate market advising several international and domestic companies over several industrial sectors across the globe including business set-ups for multiple corporate houses. He has led various PE and M&A transactions including Capital Market Transactions and a plethora of general corporate advice to clients involving complex areas of law.

Dipti had earlier joined Azure Power as general counsel from Luthra and Luthra where he was a partner. He began his independent practice through DLS Law Offices in June 2018.

Dipti joins with his team of associates and the firm intends to continue a professional relationship with the erstwhile DLS Law partners in Mumbai and Bhubaneswar, albeit in a different structure.
